Observations... From Around Town

(BY JAY WHOZIT)

That was really a nice gesture on the part of the City School Board of Trustees, when on Tuesday night of this week, they paid tribute, in the form of a banquet, to all students who, during the year, took part in any line of sports or other extracurricular activities of the school. These things should happen more often. We saw our good friend, Arthur Scifide, out on the front lawn, enjoying the Sunshine Sunday afternoon Arthur is improving quite rapidly now, and we hope this progress continues. Our genial friend, Secretary of State Walker Wood, announced this week that he will not be a candidate to succeed himself in the coming Primary Elections in August. He has served efficiently for twenty-one consecutive years as Secretary of State, and has been a friend of our city. We have information from a very reliable source that plans are being completed and that work should begin on the proposed new theater for the beach section of our town some time in the near future. The $800,000 to the Cancer Control Fund Drive for Hancock County was exceeded by $286,000, which only proves that even though we may lack a little at times, we never shirk our duty, and this keeps our record intact. Mr. R. M. Freeman, of the State Game and Fish Commission, was guest speaker at the meeting of the Hancock County Hunting and Fishing Association at the Courthouse on Tuesday night of this week. The Bay High School May Festival held on Friday night of last week, had the largest court in its history, with Ott Brockman and Miss Shirley Ladner, both of Waveland, reigning as King and Queen, with Pierre Dupiquier and Miss Catherine Garriga, as duke and maid of honor. Orrie Theater will present on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday nights, May 25th, 26th, 27th, the Academy Award winning picture, "The Best Years of Our Lives." We are told this is a splendid picture and well worth seeing. May 18th is "National Citizenship Day" or "I Am An American Day" and is observed in order that we may recognize those who have recently become American citizens, either by becoming of age or by Naturalization, and secondly, that we may reaffirm our allegiance to the principles of American Democracy. To be an American is a privilege, learn to preserve that privilege. American farmers have the largest private business in the world, their livestock, crops, and property holdings, last year, were estimated at over ninety billion dollars. To the Catholics of Bay St. Louis—if you want to do something worthwhile, something that will perpetuate the memory of your loved ones in our community for years to come, Msgr. Gmelch still has quite a list of much needed articles necessary to complete the redecoration of Our Lady of the Gulf Church in time for the celebration of the Centennial in October, so make your donation now. The show for the benefit of the American Legion building fund, given at Orrie Theater last night, was quite a success, financially and otherwise, thanks to the generosity of our citizens. Miss Mississippi for 1947, who will compete also in Atlantic City, will be selected at Grenada, Miss., on Thursday, August 7th.

SOFTBALL MEETING HELD MONDAY

A meeting was held on Wednesday night, May 14, at the Courthouse for the purpose of formulating plans for the organization of a softball league.

It is hoped that league games will commence within the next few weeks. Another meeting was called for Wednesday, May 21, at 8 P. M., at the Courthouse. Any person interested in sponsoring a team in the league is invited to attend.

BEACH PARTY

Betty Beyer and Helen Martinson, members of the St. Joseph Academy senior class, entertained the class on Wednesday night of last week at a beach party on the Beyer Beach. It was a gay group who ate heartily of hot dogs and left off senior dignity to have an out-of-school good time.

Those attending besides the hostesses were Jeanne Arceneaux, Lucille Benvenutti, Theresa Borgeles, Betty Herlihy, Dorothy Stinson, Yvonne Garcia, Betty Reeves, Toy Monti, Georgia Rose Staehle, Virginia Seal, Rosemary Dick, Norma Garcia, Janet Oliver, Blanco Del Rio, Margie Hootch.

After refreshments were disposed of the young people enjoyed "The Bandaged" at Orrie Theater. The girls were chaperoned by Mrs. W. L. Reeder and Mrs. C. R. Beyer.

GERALD V. PRICE ANNOUNCES FOR REELECTION TO OFFICE OF CONSTABLE, BEAT 5

GERALD V. PRICE

The Sea Coast Echo is authorized to announce the candidacy of Constable Gerald V. Price, for reelection in the coming Democratic Primaries. His statement to the public follows: TO THE WHITE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF HANCOCK COUNTY:

Please accept this as my announcement to run for the position of Constable of Beat 5 of Hancock County. In announcing my candidacy I feel it is proper to give a few facts about myself.

I am forty-seven years of age; a member of the American Legion and a Veteran of Foreign Wars, having served in the First World War. I have served you as Constable of this beat for one unexpired term, and two full terms, and served three years as Deputy Sheriff. Having lived here all of my life I feel that I know most of the voters personally, and having served terms as above enumerated I know that you all know my record.

In addition to working as Constable I have attended the F. B. I. schools for officers in this district every time one has been held that I could attend during my term of office, and I have had the pleasure of working with the Gulfport and New Orleans police forces.

Experience has shown us that after every world war our country is plagued with a crime wave and at such a time our community should be served by competent, experienced officers. With my experience and training I feel that I am entirely qualified to serve you as Constable for the next four years.

My one aim has always been to carry out the duties of my office and to cooperate with the people of our beat. Whenever any one in trouble has called on me I have responded immediately. All I can promise is that if re-elected I will serve you in the future as I have in the past.

Respectfully submitted,

GERALD V. PRICE,
Constable.

ENTERTAIN AT OLD-TIME ...GET-TOGETHER

Mrs. Charles White and Mrs. Edward Murtugh, Jr., entertained at an old time get-together at the home of Mrs. Murtugh in Carroll avenue on Thursday evening as a farewell to Mrs. Richard Madden who with Mrs. Madden left Saturday for Baton Rouge to make their home. The guest list was limited to the small group who were termed war widows during World War II. They were Mrs. Don McCulloch, Mrs. W. R. Pitarin, Mrs. Paul V. Lacoste, Mrs. Edwin Larroux, Mrs. L. A. Rogers, Mrs. Robert W. Hamilton.

Mrs. Madden's many friends are wishing for her much joy in her new home and know she will make many friends but it is hoped she will some day return to Bay St. Louis as a permanent resident.

MARRIED WEDNESDAY EVENING

Miss Audrey Taconi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Taconi and Thaddeus Collier, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Collier, both of this city were quietly married on Wednesday evening at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, the Right Reverend Monsignor A. J. Gmelch officiating.

Attending the bride and bridegroom were Miss Lelia Collier, sister of the bridegroom and Frank Taconi, brother of the bride.

The wedding was a very quiet one because of a recent death in the family of the bride and so only the two immediate families were present at the ceremony and there was no reception.

RED CROSS NOTES

A request has been made that any organization of groups interested in entertaining the veterans of the Veterans Hospital in Gulfport, kindly phone Mrs. Weston at the Red Cross Office or phone Mrs. Leo Seal. Each month 30 young men from the Gulfport Veterans Hospital are entertained by members of a local organization, through your Red Cross Chapter. This is a part of the Red Cross Community Service to Camps and Hospitals.

LITTLE THEATER REHEARSING PLAY

The next Little Theater play, the recent Broadway comedy "Dear Ruth," is now under rehearsal and will be presented on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, June 5th, 6th, and 7th. Mr. Dennis Tonkel himself a Little Theater favorite, is directing the play, and the cast will include Miss Mary Frances Scifide, Mrs. A. J. Bennett, Lt. William Freeman of the Merchant Marine Base; Mr. and Mrs. John Bell, Miss Louise Wilson of Waveland; Mr. Mark Solomon, and Lt. and Mrs. J. N. Horrocks, familiar to Little Theater audiences as Mr. Manningham and Nancy of "Angel Street."

"Dear Ruth" is a product of World War II, and has only in the last few months stopped playing in New York. In fact, it is so new that special arrangements had to be made with the publishers before this Little Theater could obtain permission to present it. A modern American comedy which has delighted audiences for the last two years in New York, it is one which the Little Theater is especially pleased to present to its members.

OFFICERS ELECTED BY BAY-WAVELAND GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. Eugene Mogabgab was re-elected president of the Bay Waveland Garden Club at the regular meeting on May 8 at the home of Mrs. J. R. Schaff. Other officers elected were Mrs. J. R. Rollins, first vice president, Mrs. Max Kohler, second vice president, Mrs. E. F. Fahey, Jr., treasurer, Mrs. C. A. Breath, corresponding secretary and Mrs. J. S. Mauffray, recording secretary.

Mrs. Mogabgab expressed appreciation to all who had worked so hard with her in entertaining the garden club delegates and officers who were attending the recent State Convention of Garden Clubs. Mrs. Seal was named as a nominating delegate to the Gulf Coast Council of Garden Clubs and Mrs. E. F. Kirkpatrick was named as an alternate.

Mrs. L. T. Boyd addressed the club on Hydrangea cuttings and on the separating and growing of Iris. The talk was rich in information and it was well that those interested could have the opportunity of gathering this information.

Delicious refreshments were served by the co-hostesses Mrs. A. D. Drescher and Mrs. Adeline Knoblock and a social hour was enjoyed.

Open House Held At Kings Daughters Hospital Monday

The Kings Daughters Hospital held Open House and annual shower on Monday, May 12 from 3 to 5 p. m. as is the usual custom, in the keeping of Florence Nightingale's birthday.

The hospital had recently undergone a fresh coat of paint and the rooms gave the appearance of a spring flower garden so great were the quantity of flowers sent by friends and arranged by members of the circle. The large birthday cake made and sent by one of the nursing staff was served with delicious ice cold punch by those assisting in making the affair a success. The nursing staff and hospital board were busy here and there receiving callers and showing strangers through the hospital and it seemed the paramount issue that everything was done to show the appreciation of what the hospital is attempting to do for the good of the county.

Cash donations were received which are to be used for the purchase of necessities for the running of the hospital and there were gifts of linens and kitchen ware.

The hospital board has expressed its deep appreciation for the generous response of the people to its appeal for donations at this time and at other times but when you help the hospital you help humanity.

CLAUD MONTI ANNOUNCES FOR OFFICE OF SHERIFF AND TAX-COLLECTOR

CLAUD MONTI

The Sea Coast Echo is authorized to announce the candidacy of Claud Monti, for the office of Sheriff and Tax-Collector, of Hancock County, subject to the action of the Democratic Primaries.

His statement follows:
TO THE VOTERS OF HANCOCK COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI:

While it is generally known that I am a candidate for the office of Sheriff and Tax-Collector of Hancock County, I wish to take this opportunity to officially publish my announcement for this office.

I have been a lifelong resident of Bay St. Louis, Hancock County, Mississippi, and was actively engaged in business here for over 30 years prior to the time that I was honored by the voters of Hancock County to serve them as Sheriff for the years 1932-1936.

Since that time I have been holding the official position of County Patrolman, in which office I am now employed. During the time I have served in official positions, I have done my utmost to serve everyone fairly. If you believe that I have served you well, please do not forget this on election day and I assure you that your vote and influence will be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,

CLAUD MONTI

Hunting And Fishing Assn. Holds Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Hancock County Hunting and Fishing Club was held Monday night with Mr. R. M. Freeman, Director of the State Game and Fish Commission as guest speaker.

In his talk, Mr. Freeman stressed the fact that there is still an abundance of breeding stock left and with careful management our wild life can be kept at a maximum.

Mr. Freeman stated that the scarcity of quail in the coastal region is due largely to over grazing by livestock and forest fires.

The next regular meeting will be the first Monday in June, and it is hoped that a large crowd will be present.

Gulf Coast Trade School

Further developments in the opening of Gulf Coast Trade School to white veterans are pending a meeting of the Mississippi Junior College Commission. The meeting was originally planned for the week of May 12-17, but has been postponed until a later date due to the heavy work load in Junior Colleges presently ending school sessions.

It is believed that if favorable consideration is given by the Mississippi Junior College Commission, this school may be in a position to accept White Veterans by June 2, 1947.

AMERICAN LEGION NEWS

If the first show at the Orrie Theatre Thursday night was any criterion of the eventual success of the campaign of the Clement R. Bon Temps Post No. 139, American Legion to raise necessary funds for the contemplated memorial home then it can be assured, for that show was a complete success in every way. As predicted, both performances were attended by packed houses and the audiences enjoyed every minute of it. Entrance prizes were awarded and the lucky winners will be announced in next weeks issue of this paper.

Not only will the members of the Legion be able to enjoy the facilities of the bathing pier which will be erected, but the general public will also have the opportunity of using this pier without any cost to them which alone is something that the entire community is in dire need of, not only for themselves, but for the numerous visitors that spend their vacations here and have no alternative other than going out of Bay St. Louis in the event they desire any bathing facilities.

Further plans of the campaign committee are going forward with rapid progress and it is anticipated that announcement of the next entertainment program will be forthcoming shortly.

The Post wants to take this opportunity of thanking the entire County for their splendid cooperation in making Legion Day such a success and hopes for their continued cooperation in making their drive for their Memorial Home a reality.

Girl Scouts Give Mother And Daughter Tea

Girl Scout Troop No. 1, which is sponsored by the Methodist Church entertained at a Mother and Daughter Tea on Thursday evening, May 9 in the Church School annex.

The Scout rooms were beautifully decorated in roses and oleander blooms emblematic of the Scout colors, green and white, and Mother's Day colors, white and red. The table from which punch was served was covered with a white lace cloth and the flowers were white roses and red poppies. Dawn Slier presided at the punch bowl assisted by Patricia Stone, Patricia Shadoin and Jane Ann Martin.

Mrs. J. B. Biscoe Goldman who was Troop Leader since Troop 1 was organized and who recently retired was elected honorary Scout Mother at the regular meeting of the Scouts on the previous Monday. She was presented with a corsage of sweet-hybrid roses in recognition of the work she had done with the Scouts and because of being Scout Mother. The presentation was made by Mary Lou Sciana who in her usual sweet manner said that Mrs. Goldman had always done things for the scouts and now the scouts wanted to show their appreciation with this token of their love for her and presented the corsage.

Dauna Sellier gave a toast to the mothers and Mrs. C. C. McDonald made the response for the mothers in a few fitting remarks.

Mrs. P. E. Pierce, Troop Leader, Mrs. Gordon Romanoff, assistant Troop Leader and Mrs. C. C. Stone, Mrs. J. R. Shadoin and Mrs. H. Grady Perkins, troop committee, helped the girls in planning the tea. But deep appreciation was expressed to Mrs. E. H. Singenier who really did the major part of preparing the refreshments and the girls consider her a fairy godmother as well as a good Scout.

The following Scouts favored with a few piano and vocal selections: Barbara Ann Burrow, Carol Turner, Temple Perkins, and Sylvia Horton.

KENNETH McCARTY ANNOUNCES FOR CO. SUPERINTENDENT OF EDUCATION

KENNETH G. McCARTY

The Sea Coast Echo is authorized to announce the candidacy of Kenneth G. McCarty, for the office of County Superintendent of Education of Hancock County, in the coming primary election in August. His statement to the voters follows: To the Voters of Hancock County subject to the Democratic Primaries, August 5, 1947.

I completed my grammar school and high school education in Hancock County. I graduated from Sellers Vocational High School in 1927. I entered Perkinson Junior College in the fall of 1928, working to defray most of my expenses, graduating from that institution in June 1929. After graduating from Perkinson Junior College, I was offered several jobs teaching school, but I decided it was necessary to obtain a higher education to be a more effective teacher. I entered Mississippi State College in the fall of 1929, receiving my B. S. degree in 1931.

I served as principal of Oatula School during the year 1931-1932. I was elected to Sellers High School, which position I held until July 1, 1935. I was elected Superintendent of Education in August 1935 and held the office until 1944. I feel that I am experienced and trained in discharging the duties of that office. I believe I can render the people of the county efficient service. During the war I worked at Pendleton's and Ingall's Ship yards to help do my part as a home front soldier. For the past two years I have been engaged in active school work in Jackson County, Mississippi.

If the voters of Hancock County were satisfied with my previous term of office, as Superintendent of Education, I will appreciate being bestowed with the honor of serving to that important office again. If elected I propose to do the following constructive things to promote better education in the county.

(1) To see that the veterans get educational training to make him fit to make a better living for himself and family.

(2) One primary objective is to visit each school in the county once a month and discuss some worthwhile subject with the student body, that will promote better citizenship.

(3) I intend to cooperate with the principals and trustees of the county to help organize conservation clubs in each school.

(4) I will also sponsor and cooperate with the leaders of 4-H Club work, which I deem very necessary for rural communities.

(5) If competent teachers are available, I shall endeavor to get the best trained instructors to teach the boys and girls of this county.

(6) I advocate to help establish recreational centers for the youth of each community, if so desired by the people.

KENNETH McCARTY

Garden Club Expresses Appreciation

The Bay-Waveland Garden Club

takes this means of expressing its appreciation of the cooperation and help which made it possible for the club to invite the State Garden Club officers and delegates, who were attending the state convention at Biloxi, to make a tour of our city, visit some of our gardens and be guests for tea.

Expressions of thanks are extended to the Rotary Club and Chamber of Commerce for generous donations; the Mayor and City Commissioners for donation and cooperation in the Clean Up Campaign; the Highway Patrol; Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Gex, and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Prowell for opening their gardens to the visitors; the Lorraine Flower Shop for the loan of plants; J. Roland Weston and Anthony Scifidi for photographs; Mrs. J. B. Goldman for assisting with the young girls; C. A. Breath, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. ## BAY HI MAY FESTIVAL HAS LARGEST COURT IN HISTORY

Miss Shirley Ladner And Ott Brockman Reigned As King and Queen

Shirley Ladner, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Ladner of Waveland, and Ott Brockman, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Brockman of Waveland, reigned over a brilliant May Festival at Bay High on Friday evening with the largest court in its history, in a setting of a colorful spring garden where red roses and blossoming vines ran riot. Above the Royal seat were suspended two crowns depicting crowns worn in Royal courts.

The young queen was a youthful picture in a dress of white net made with a full skirt and a brocaded satin tight-fitting bodice and with medallions of satin let into the skirt. The long mantle was of satin trimmed in bands of sequins and fell from a broad collar. Silver sequin medallions trimmed the long train. Her crown, which the king placed on her head as she joined him in the garden, was of scintillating jewels. She carried the cascading bouquet of American Beauty roses. The Maid of Honor, Catherine Garriga, wore a dress of peach net fashioned along the same lines as the queen and she carried blue iris and silver ribbon finished the bouquet. The king and duke of honor, Pierre Dupiquier, wore summer formals.

The maids all wore dresses in pastel shades and carried old fashioned bouquets finished at the edges with the color matching the dress. The dukes wore Tuxedos.

To be king and queen of the Bay High Festival is always a coveted honor among the seniors because it is based on scholarship, citizenship, character, fair play and good sportsmanship. The maid and duke of honor are always the two whose names are next highest.

I was elected to Sellers High School, which position I held until July 1, 1935. I was elected Superintendent of Education in August 1935 and held the office until 1944. I feel that I am experienced and trained in discharging the duties of that office. I believe I can render the people of the county efficient service. During the war I worked at Pendleton's and Ingall's Ship yards to help do my part as a home front soldier. For the past two years I have been engaged in active school work in Jackson County, Mississippi.

Library Receives New Books

The Bay St. Louis-Hancock County Library has just received twenty-two new books for children and adults. These are now ready for circulation and the library welcomes the children and grown ups. With vacation at hand it is hoped that the boys and girls will visit the library and take advantage of this opportunity to read some new, good books.

The library feels confident that all Garden Club members will be anxious to read Fairchild's new book "The World Grows Round My Door" and housewives will want to read "Decorating For You" by Terhune, and some will want Koestler's "Thieves in the Night."

The children will enjoy Carroll's "The Flying House"; Hauman's "Surprise for Timmy"; Mason's "Middle Sister" and many others.

Special Program For Mothers Day Given

Mrs. Earl Ramond, Supt. of Sunday school of the Baptist Church had a special program for Mothers Day on Sunday, May 11. The children's chorus sang two Mothers Day songs and short sketches of the Mothers of the Bible were given by Joyce Middleton, Shirley Favre, Mary Favre, Marie Parker and Annie Lou Parker.

Mrs. Ramond read Taylor's poem, "My Mother" and talked to the children of what they owed their mother.

Bay High Students Guests At Supper

Bay High Students who have been active in football, basketball, boxing, track, debating, declamation, chorus, orchestra, band, Student Prints were honor guests Tuesday night at a supper given by the Board of trustees, faculty, parents and interested friends. A delicious menu had been prepared by the Home Economics and Cafeteria departments and served by a number of the students. How it was accomplished is beyond understanding for feeding 200 people is not too easy and frying chicken for that many is less easy. It was indeed a perfect meal.

A very entertaining program was rendered by the students with Ott Brockman acting as master of ceremonies. City Commissioner H. Grady Perkins and Evren Jones, a Mississippi educator, of Jackson, spoke for the adult group. It was not hard to make a comparison with today and 35 years ago when we boasted of a graduating class of 12. The general public can point with pride to our schools and say of the high school that it "has cum a fur piece." At the close of the program Mr. Ingram received the major applause, not for a speech—for announcing that the rest of the evening could be spent in dancing.

United China Relief Program Has Support Of General Marshall

General George C. Marshall, secretary of State, has expressed his wholehearted approval of United Service to China, according to a statement received by Dr. M. L. Smith, state campaign chairman for the Military Tippi USC drive which begins May 16.

In a telegram to Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., national chairman for United Service to China, General Marshall made the following statement:

"With the advent of the Chinese New Year hundreds of millions of suffering Chinese people look hopefully towards America for some assistance in restoring the havoc of ten years of war. The organization United Service to China affords a means of extending a helping hand in rehabilitating and promoting the health and welfare of the people and their agriculture. This organization is not concerned with the political or military struggles now in progress. In contributing to its efforts Americans will not only be lending desperately needed assistance to a courageous and long-suffering people but will be making a definite contribution towards the lasting peace which is the hope of civilization throughout the world."

General Marshall is national honorary chairman of United Service to China, serving with Paul G. Hoffman. Other national leaders are Pearl S. Buck, Charles Wilson, William J. Donovan, James A. Farley, Eric A. Johnston, Paul V. McNutt and others.

"General Marshall's statement should remove many of the doubts which American citizens have towards United Service to China," stated Dr. Smith in announcing the General's message. "Mississippi's contribution towards United Service to China will help earn for Americans the lasting friendship of millions in that ancient land across the Pacific. Ultimately, these friends, strong, united and working in cooperation with us, and not against us, will help us realize our own high hopes for economic stability and global peace."

Mississippi's quota in the 1947 United Service to China drive is $80,000. This is 1% of the national quota of $8,000,000. These funds will be used to educate more teachers, more doctors and more nurses in China and will help provide for child welfare and increased practical training for China's youth. It also supplies critical supplementary assistance to the Chinese program of reconstruction.

the world of difficulty and doubt beneath the feet, and the grand panorama of success bursting upon the view, there can be no question about the reward.

Such is our message at the close of our association with this school. Such is the ideal of the class in whose name I once more bid you farewell.

NEW IDEALS

Salutatory address delivered by Jacqueline Whitney, Kiln Hi School. Friends, Parents, Teachers:

We welcome you to our commencement. Today we graduate, ready for the first steps of the grown-up job of living, with the host of hopes and plans for the unknown future.

We remember our years here for the happy times they have held, the good friendships made, the sympathetic leadership of our teachers. And it is good that our memories are such happy ones. If we are already forgetting the tasks that seemed too dull or difficult, it is because we learned to overcome the tasks, and because the importance background of our "good times" has become a natural part of ourselves, a dependable equipment for the future into which we start so eagerly today.

It is to our teachers that we owe this development. We came here with receptive minds, fallow fields ready for sowing. In them, little by little our teachers planted seeds of knowledge and that understanding which is so much more than knowledge alone. As they spread out before us the fundamentals of education, we have not only absorbed facts, but have felt ourselves more and more in accord with the wide world.

Some of us will go on to higher institutions of learning, fortunate to have the benefit of further education and training. In our training for business and the professions, may we find the comradeship and understanding that has been ours in high school, for others this may be the last day of school as they get out to find their places in the world, to learn in the school of experience and the so-called University of Hard Knocks. They will appreciate sooner the value of what they have learned here as they apply it to their daily work.

The greatest product of our preliminary training should be character. This word means many things. Character as we should strive to attain it would include the qualities of industry, of honesty, of courage, and of unselfishness.

It was Benjamin Franklin who said, "Slowness makes all things difficult, but industry all easy." By his faithful adherence to that idea he rose from a simple workman to a statesman whose memory still commands the respect of the world. Industry cannot make Franklins of us all, but it can set us well on the way to successful careers.

The first step toward greatness is to be honest. This does not mean that one should be honest simply because honesty is the best policy, but that he should be honest because it is right to be honest, because he feels better for being honest. Nearly every great American, merchant or statesman, has been noted for his absolute honesty. The most illuminating stories of Abraham Lincoln as a boy deals with his high sense of honesty. We will not all be Abraham Lincolns or great American merchants, but if we observe this attitude we shall become men and women whom they would have been glad to acknowledge as friends.

Courage should be the attribute of every American. It was the dominating virtue of the pioneer. Courage won the American Revolution. It was a part of the character of every man who has achieved fame or fortune. This does not mean physical courage alone, but the courage that is sustained. It is the courage that makes men truthful, that makes men just, that makes them honest, that makes them perform their duties in the face of obstacles. If men and women do not have this virtue they cannot succeed in any branch of life.

Unselfishness is a necessary requirement for the man or woman who wishes to be a value to his or her community. We must sacrifice ourselves if we hope to achieve anything. We cannot gain without giving. The pioneers in America gave their strength and often their lives to conquer the wilderness, but they gained for us the most valuable country in the world. They knew that they could do no more than clear the land for those who were to follow. The great cities and states which now occupy what was then deep woods could not arise in their lifetimes; but they held to their tasks.

The men who signed the Declaration of Independence were risking their lives, not for their own gain, but for the good of future generations. The soldiers who died at Valley Forge, or at Gettysburg, or France were not seeking a material reward. They knew that in the success of this nation depended on

COURAGE TO GO FORWARD

Valedictory delivered at Kiln High School Commencement by Yvonne Depreo.

Ladies and Gentlemen: To our friends gathered here, to the teachers who have been our guides and to our fellow students, it is my privilege to bid our farewells. We do so with feelings of lasting gratitude and marked respect, for it is due to your toil, to your sacrifices, and to your efforts on our behalf, that we are ready to do some of the work the future has in store for us.

The new era holds great promise for us—bold things, noble things, tedious things, difficult things, enduring things. Consequently, we must go courageously forward.

Now courage, considered in itself, is no virtue, and deserves no esteem. We find it in the worst and the best, in the villain and in the virtuous. Long continued vice and exposure naturally generate contempt of life and a reckless encounter of peril. But there is also a virtuous, glorious courage; the courage to do right in the face of scorn, which risks rank, reputation, the prospect of advancement, the sympathy of friends, the admiration of the world rather than violate the conviction of duty. Need I tell you that this courage has hardly anything to do with which generally bears that name? The greatest names are not always written in blood. There is just as much genuine courage needed to devote oneself to the best interest of humanity as there is to fight in a battle.

The courage this complex and democratic age especially needs is the courage of benevolence and piety. It is the courage of the soul that forces us to forget about our bodies and spurs us on to find joy in the sufferings our loyalty has reaped. It is this courage that belongs to the true reformer who rises above his times; who rescues great truths from the corruption of ages; and inspires a victorious faith in the perpetual progress of our nature.

Strange in this most advanced period of the world's history there should be so many people who, lacking stability, are moral cowards. But the new age does not want cowards, it wants courageous men and women. For, if you want to succeed in a business you must have courage; if you think of entering the professions, courage is imperative. Let me assure that a business in whatever category it belongs, demands for its success many qualities, among which courage takes a foremost rank. This rule is universal; there is no exception to it. Courage will be one of our most valuable assets, no matter whether we intend to be artists, or scientists, professional men or merchants.

This new age demands men of character and courage, men of clear thought and resolution, men ready for instant service. For these courage and character, are chief in the life of the individual, and the nations. A careful study of the causes that have led to the downfall of nations will convince us of the importance of the moral element in the Nations' life.

We need moral courage for the protection and preservation of our government. We need it among our public officials so that they will prize their honor above money. We need it in private life so that we will not more hesitate to punish unfaithful politicians than to praise them.

Every man owes it to the world to stand for the right, as God gives him power to see the right, and he who forgets himself in his devotion to duty will be remembered when timesavers and self-seekers have disappeared.

The hill of difficulty is high and steep. Labor, energy and perseverance are necessary to climb it. Brain, heart, blood and brawn unite to declare that it pays to reach the top. No matter how much toil, hardships and even hunger and sufferings it costs to climb there, it pays. Once firmly fixed upon the eminence their sacrifice. If we are to do our share of service we must be prepared to make sacrifices, to be unselfish. The men and women who have sown the seeds of education in us, our principal and our teachers, would feel they were well rewarded for their efforts if we developed new ideals which they could regard with pride. Whether we disappoint them or gratify their hopes rests with us, but if we strive earnestly to develop those four virtues, industry, honesty, courage and unselfishness, they will feel that their work has not been in vain, that our new ideals are worthy.

Search To Locate Oldest Chevrolet Truck To Continue Through June 15

A search to locate the oldest Chevrolet truck still in active service in the United States opens May 10 and will continue until June 15th, J. R. Roach, Jr., Zone Manager of Chevrolet Motor Division, in New Orleans announced today.

"Owner of the oldest vehicle in the nationwide search will be awarded a new truck from the Advance-Design line of trucks which Chevrolet will soon introduce to the public," said Mr. Roach. "We hope that the winner will be in the New Orleans Zone, and urge all owners of old Chevrolet trucks in this area to register with Chevrolet dealers as soon as possible."

Rules of the search provide that the truck must carry a 1947 license and be driven to a Chevrolet dealership for official entry. Age of the winning truck will be determined by its serial number.

The New Orleans Zone of Chevrolet comprises the following territory: State of Louisiana and the Southern half of Mississippi.

The Veterans Administration hospital at Framingham, Mass., instituted a series of 21 lectures sponsored by the Educational Retraining, Medical Rehabilitation, Service on small businesses for paraplegic veterans—patients who plan to go into business when they are discharged from the hospital.

"National Citizenship Day"
May 18th

Jackson, Miss., May 10—(Special): J. M. Tubb, State Superintendent of Education, calls attention to Sunday, May 18, which is "National Citizenship" or "I Am An American Day." The Congress of the United States in 1940 recognized the third Sunday in May for this observance. Governor Fielding Wright has issued his proclamation for Mississippi.

This Congressional Act and these executive proclamations have a two-fold purpose: First, that we may honor and recognize those who have recently become American citizens, either by becoming of age or by naturalization; and, second, that all of our citizens may re-affirm their allegiance to the principles of American Democracy. Federal, State and local officials, as well as patriotic, civic, and educational organizations are called upon to hold exercises in observance of this day. These exercises should be designed to impress upon all of our citizens, native-born or naturalized, their privileges and responsibilities for building this Nation's security and advancing its welfare.

Mr. Tubb calls upon all school leaders in Mississippi to recognize this Act and these proclamations and to accept their challenge. Public education is the strong right arm of our Democracy. Through the school rooms of our land are channeled the philosophies of our government; within their walls are taught the priceless legacies of our Nation. To love freedom is inherent in the heart of each American. To be an American citizen is a privilege. Let us magnify the American way of life for which thousands of young men lay down their lives to preserve.

ORTTE THEATRE
SUNDAY AND MONDAY
"SINGIN' IN THE CORN"

With Judy Canova As Star
Of Madcap Comedy

Judy Canova, madcap hillbilly queen, once again proves a top movie comedienne. As the star of Columbia's "Singin' in the Corn," to be at the Ortte Theatre, Sunday and Monday, Judy is a one-woman riot, dishing out mirth and music with a generous hand in a new and completely happy-go-lucky escapade. In support of Miss Canova are Allen Jenkins, Guinn "Big Boy" Williams and the Singing Indian Braves.

The fun starts when Judy tries to give a desert ghost town back to the Indians so that she may inherit 120,000 under the terms of an extremely unorthodox will. The Indians are afraid to accept the town because they are sure it's haunted. It is "haunted" by a group of gamblers who want to keep the town for themselves and make it another Reno. So, Judy and her partner (Allen Jenkins) find themselves battling the gamblers on one hand and the Indians on the other. There's plenty of excitement and side-splitting comedy when Judy finally turns the intervention of one of the weaker-minded badmen (Guinn "Big Boy" Williams), who has become enamored of her. In between the action and laughs, Judy finds time to sing her inimitable songs.

The screenplay for "Singin' in the Corn" was penned by Isabel Dawn and Monte Brice from a story by Richard Weil, and offers Judy every opportunity to exploit her particular type of comedy. Assisting her considerably is director Del Lord, who staged the film for producer Ted Richmond.

Commission Awaiting Former Nurses In Regular Army

Atlanta, Ga.—If you were a nurse in the Armed Services, Army Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard, during World War II, there is a commission waiting for you as a nurse in the Regular Army.

That's the word from Lt. Colonel Agnes A. Maley, Chief of the Nursing Division, Medical Section, Headquarters Third Army, who explains that the need for nurses is so great that the opportunity to become a Regular Army nurse has been thrown open, with Congressional approval, to ex-service nurses who can qualify.

The successful applicants, Colonel Maley says, will win commissions entitling them to all privileges of pay, allowances and promotions accorded any officer in the Regular Army. Also, there may be a trip abroad for those who are successful, as Army nurses are subject to overseas duty. It will be necessary, Colonel Maley explains, for applicants to write her direct or call on her in person, as the Army Recruiting officers do not carry the necessary application blanks.

A. Yes. Under the regulations of Veterans Administration you may change your school, but you must have the approval of VA in advance.

A. All VA offices except contact offices are authorized to receive premiums payments on National Service Life Insurance.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, and help build resistance for the "time" to come. Started 3 days before "your time," it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. Try it!

Industry Tells Nation About Mississippi

Mississippi's bid for new industry received a big boost this month when a privately owned, financed and operated industry—the Sanders Industries—launched an advertising campaign in Time Magazine, telling other industries of the nation about the state's natural advantages for industry. A preview of the campaign was presented to the State Agricultural and Industrial Board, which expressed its appreciation for the advertisements. Shown above viewing the display of ads are, left to right: Robert D. Sanders, president of the Sanders Industries; Les Taylor, chairman of the advertising committee of the Agricultural and Industrial Board; Former Governor Hugh White, of Columbia, who originated the "balance agriculture with industry" plan; and W. F. Barksdale, director of the Agricultural and Industrial Board. The campaign will continue through June.

Congressional Sidelights

FOOD PRICES

While the Federal Government has guaranteed to hold prices of farm products 90% of "parity" (a price that yields the producer a purchasing power equivalent to that of the 1909-1914 base period), the food prices which have been giving American housewives, and others, considerable concern during recent years are in most cases prices fixed by the law of supply and demand. It so happens that at this time practically the only food commodities which are being Government-subsidized are potatoes and turkeys. Wheat and corn are being purchased by the Government for relief abroad but not for the purpose of price support.

At the present time food prices in general are higher than the level at which the Government must step in. As a matter of fact a 26 percent cut would have to occur in the average prices paid to farmers before this wartime guarantee would have to be fulfilled. The fact that housewives have refused in some instances to pay exorbitant prices for certain food commodities is a very wholesome sign and if such buyer resistance continues it is reasonable to assume that, barring any major setbacks in farm production, prices will continue to ease off.

In this connection it is interesting to observe from the following figures how far food prices on the basic commodities can fall before Uncle Sam would have to step in under the support price program:

	Present Price	Support Price
Hogs (per 100 lbs.)	$25.40	$15.60
Chickens (per lb.)	26.6	23.5
Eggs (per dozen)	40	37 1/2
Milk (per 100 lb.)	4.10	3.24
Butter (per pound)	.60	.55
Wheat (per bushel)	2.35	1.82
Corn (per bushel)	1.44	1.32

Thus it will be seen that presently price supports have little direct effect on what the housewives pay the grocer and the butcher for food, but our agricultural economists have

State Quota For China Relief Is Announced Today

Mississippi's part of the 1947 United Service to China appeal is $80,000, 1% of the national quota of $8,000,000. It was learned today from Dr. M. L. Smith, president of Mississippi College, Jackson, Mississippi, and state campaign chairman for Mississippi in the USC drive.

May 5-17 has been set by Dr. Smith as the period during which this amount will be raised by contributions to county funds. Under the leadership of nine leading citizens the 82 counties are being organized for the United Service to China appeal.

According to Dr. Smith, United Service to China was organized in January, 1941, by a group of nationally known citizens, including Pearl S. Buck, Henry R. Luce, Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., and others. Its mission was to extend intelligent, understanding assistance to the Chinese people in their battle against the invader and, on a long-term basis, aid in their struggle to achieve economic stability and freedom from want and fear; to broaden American knowledge and understanding of the Chinese; and to combine the fund-raising activities of the principal American agencies furnishing aid to China into one solicitation and administrative organization.

During the past six years, Dr. Smith pointed out, nearly $45,000,000 has been contributed and sent to aid our wartime ally and all of this money was utilized for worthwhile, lasting projects. More than 24,000,000 Chinese people were aided in some way through United Service to China.

The Occupational Therapy Department of the Veterans Administration hospital at Batavia, N. Y., adapted three foot and hand looms for blind veteran-patients by "writing" patterns on Braille boards. When the patient moves a wooden peg opposite a board's pattern lines, he can weave without assistance.

pointed out that bumper crops this year may bring food prices down by late 1947 or early 1948.

ARMY-NAVY-AIRFORCE MERGER

President Truman's recommendations to the Congress for merging the armed forces are currently being considered by the House Committee on Expenditures in Executive Departments. The proposed merger would set up a Department of Air Force, but would place land, sea and air forces under a Secretary of National Defense.

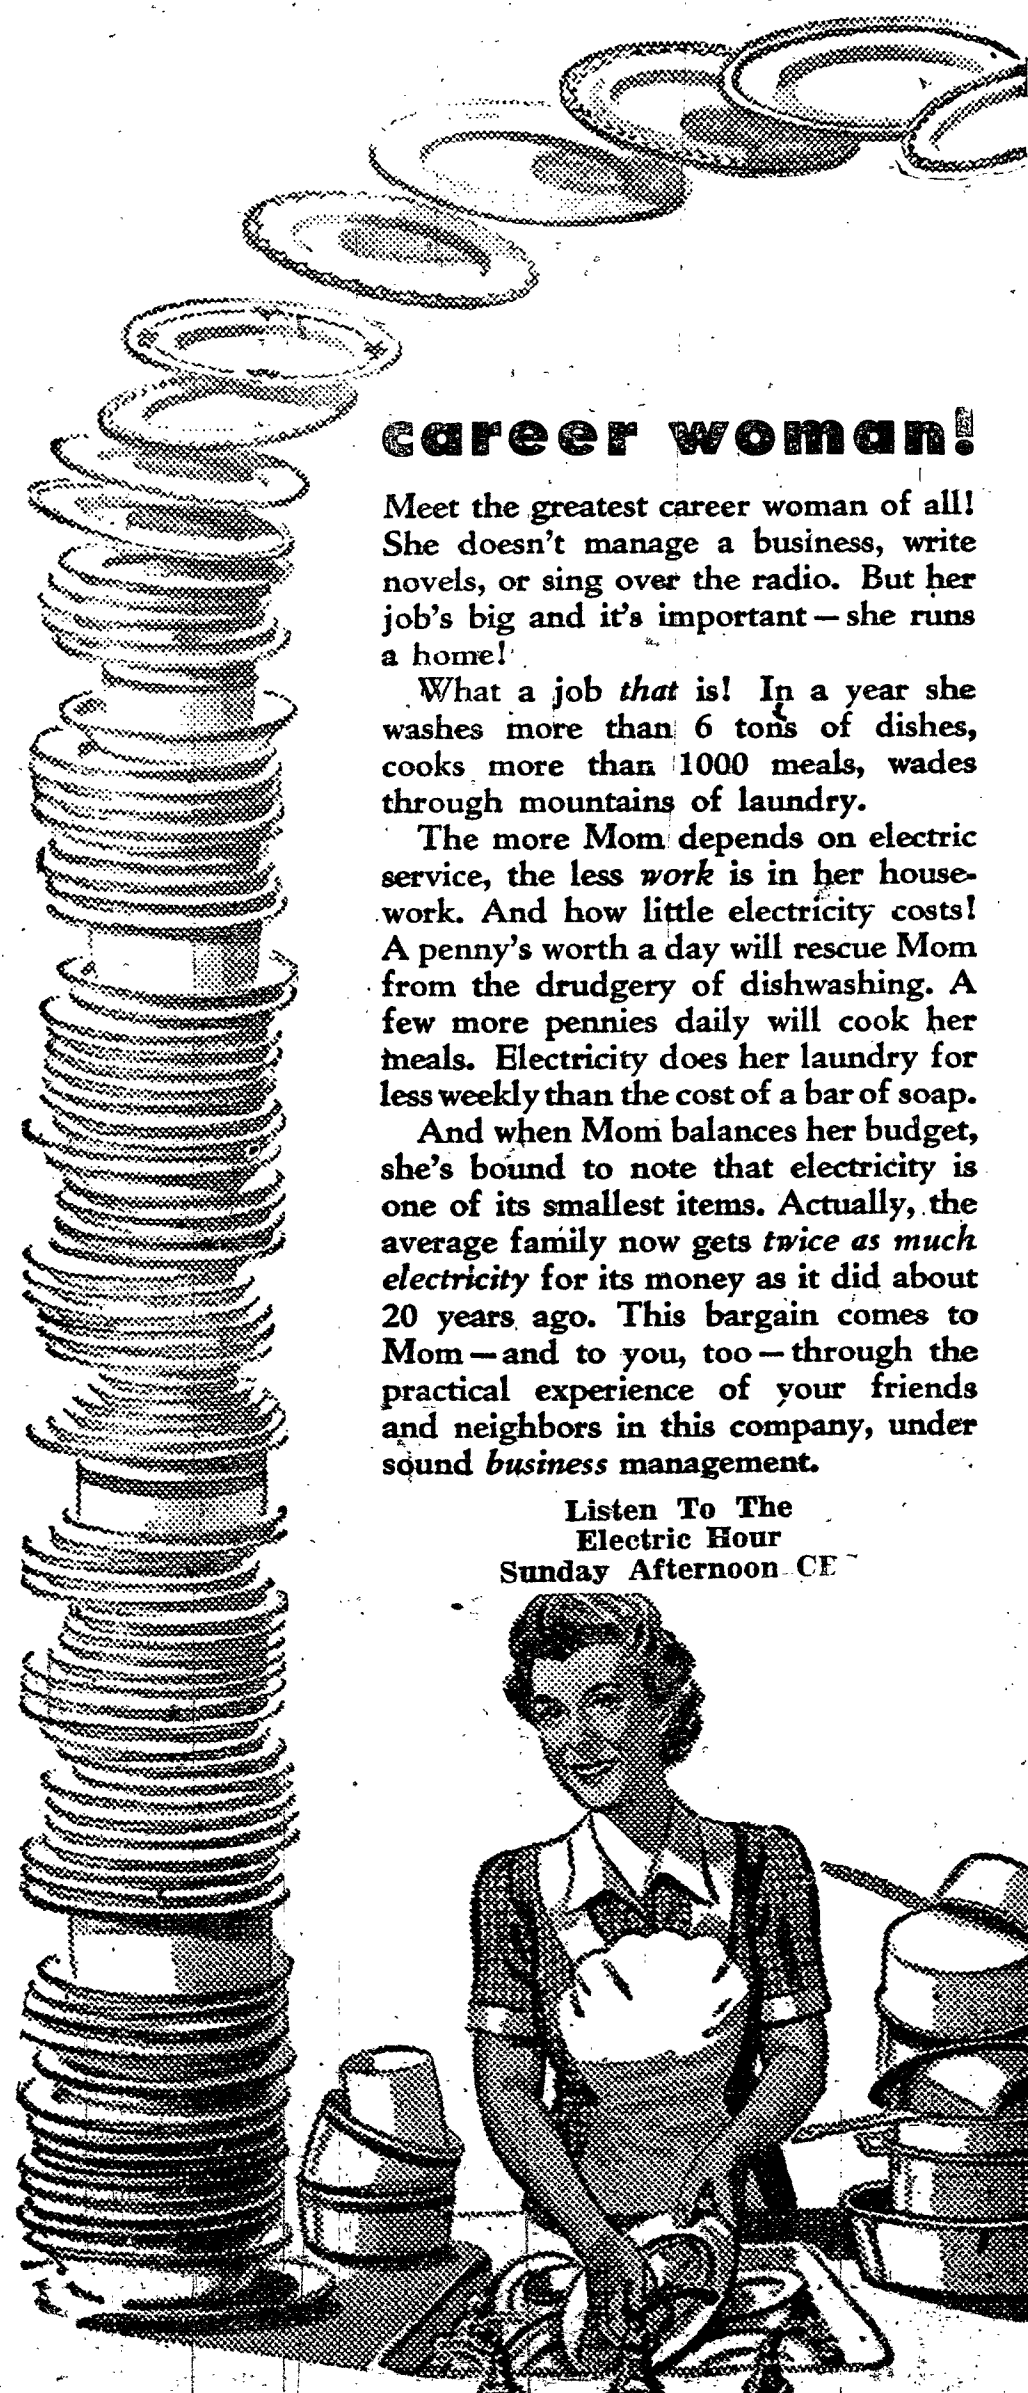

The measure is aimed at providing a greater amount of coordination between our present armed forces. It is argued that resources, manpower, equipment and intelligence can be collected and distributed more efficiently and research conducted more effectively under one central head. However, under the proposal the Army, Navy and Air Forces would be considered separately for administration purposes.

Although it cannot be predicted now as to just when this legislation will be considered in the halls of Congress, there is considerable difference of opinion on the matter and the measure is almost certain to be hotly debated.

FARMING BIG BUSINESS

American farmers have the largest private business in the world. Their land, buildings, machinery, equipment, livestock and crops on hand were worth over 90 billion last year.

This, of course, is not just one big business. It comes from more than five million independent farming establishments, each producing on an average between $2,500 to $4,000 worth of products a year. If a farmer contracts a debt expecting to pay it with 40c cotton, and cotton goes down to 20c a pound, the debt of the farmer is, in effect, doubled. Therefore, it is very desirable that the farmer get out of debt on high prices and a surprisingly large number of them are doing just that.

career woman!

Meet the greatest career woman of all! She doesn't manage a business, write novels, or sing over the radio. But her job's big and it's important—she runs a home!

What a job that is! In a year she washes more than 6 tons of dishes, cooks more than 1000 meals, wades through mountains of laundry.

The more Mom depends on electric service, the less work is in her household. And how little electricity costs! A penny's worth a day will rescue Mom from the drudgery of dishwashing. A few more pennies daily will cook her meals. Electricity does her laundry for less weekly than the cost of a bar of soap.

And when Mom balances her budget, she's bound to note that electricity is one of its smallest items. Actually, the average family now gets twice as much electricity for its money as it did about 20 years ago. This bargain comes to Mom—and to you, too—through the practical experience of your friends and neighbors in this company, under sound business management.

FORMER MAYOR PASSES

Hon. Swepson J. Taylor well known in Jackson as a business man and political leader for a period covering more than a half century, died at his home in the city on Friday, April 25. Mr. Taylor was eighty-six years of age and was active in business to the day of his death. He served one term as Mayor of Jackson and never offered for reelection or for any other office. He was always weep in politics but it was for his friends.

CANCER MONTH

The month of April just passed was designated by Congress as Cancer month and efforts to raise money to combat that terrible disease were greatly increased. In the past few years cancer has been one of the most deadly perils we have ever been called upon to fight. Experts have figured out that unless something is done to check the death record that cancer will take the life of one out of every eight persons now living. This is an appalling situation. Cancer is not contagious, it is slow in its deadly attacks and all doctors tell us that it can be cured if reached in time and properly treated. All of this seems to suggest physical examinations close enough together that it will not be allowed to get by without being caught. One of the most important questions confronting the American people today is the fight on cancer and the effort to run it down in the stages when it can be cured.

FRANK HARPER

When Frank Harper failed to win the senatorial nomination in 1946, he went to Washington and got a job as "elevator boy" in the Senate. When the Republicans put their new broom to work they swept out Harper along with many other perfectly good men because they happened to be Democrats. Now Mr. Harper is back at Hattiesburg running for the State Senate, a position he has held before.

WALLACE TELLING TRUTH

It seems that in a speech in England last week, Henry Wallace referred to Mississippi in derision, of course, as the 'Enlightened State of Mississippi.' John Rankin was quick to take it up and said that Wallace had come nearer the truth in that statement than anything else he has said in England. If Mississippi prevented Wallace from being nominated at Chicago it was really 'Enlightened Mississippi.'

If Natural Gas could be carried in Buckets . . .

Every family within reach of a gas well could have natural gas service . . . every Jack and Jill in Mississippi would be fetching a painful . . . if gas could be carried in buckets!

But that's impossible, of course.

The only way to move natural gas from wells to markets is through pipe lines—great steel arteries that wind over hills and under rivers, through swamps and wastelands, linking enormous underground reservoirs with the burners in your home and factory.

United Gas has more than 6,000 miles of such lines, connected to more than 100 fields in Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas. At the outlet ends of United's pipe lines are 322 southern cities and towns, many of which are served by United Gas distribution systems. By providing this link between wells and markets, by making this gas available for use, United is giving value to gas that might otherwise remain worthless in the ground . . . is helping to bring the comfort and convenience of natural gas service into your home and that of your neighbor.

A Definition of Our Town

Somebody defined our town just the other day as "A place where the people talk about you behind your back, and come to wait on you when you're sick."

I've got to admit there's something to it. A lot of our folks are inclined to be pretty outspoken and quick to criticize . . . even about little things, like a woman's hat, or a man's preference for a glass of beer, or the color of Cy Hartman's new barn.

But when anyone's in trouble, those differences and points of criticism are forgotten . . . and folks become neighborly and helpful, like they really are.

From where I sit, criticism never did much harm to anybody, so long as folks don't let it guide their actions . . . so long as they respect our individual preferences, whether they apply to hats or beer. That's the way it is in our town, anyway, and I hope that it's the same in yours.

Soil Conservation News

By J. L. Bishop
Mr. J. L. Crump, Cooperator with the Hancock County Soil Conservation District in Kila Community is busy mowing weeds and tough grass in his pastures. Mr. Crump said, "The weeds crowd out my white dutch clover and prevents cattle from grazing grass evenly, making the grass too tough for the cattle to eat; by mowing two or three times during the summer the grass will be more palatable for the cattle."

Soil survey work is now in progress on 27 farms in the Sellers, Crane Creek and Necaise Communities. When the soil maps are completed, soil and water conservation plans will be made on these farms.

During the recent war he served in the Navy, and upon discharge entered the insurance business at Hazlehurst. Murphy is a member of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He is a graduate of the University of Mississippi.

As Lumpkin's statewide campaign manager, Murphy will have charge of the state campaign headquarters which have been opened on the third floor of the Walthall Hotel in downtown Jackson.
